I think this might be more suitable for slightly older girls there's a poem about pimples in here, after all who are starting to think more about themselves and their place in the world.

Just Like Me (Paul Revere & the Raiders song)

The illustrations are so dynamic and beautiful. I can't even pick a favorite poem, they are all that good. It was released on and marked the beginning of a string of garage rock classics.

Just Like Me (Paul Revere & the Raiders song)

But how many of those books stand out? Instead of being a storybook it's more of a poetry collection. . I'm just not sure of the appeal of free-verse poetry for the younger set.

All kinds of black girls, brown girls, asian girls, white girls, and even biracial girls will find themselves in these pages. While some of the poems left me feeling a bit indifferent, most of the illustrations had me eagerly poring over the pages and anticipating what I'd see when I'd turn to the next spread.

I can just imagine reading this to a younger group of kids and they would be obsessed. This is a wonderful poetry collection that must not be missed! It's the return of the. I have been a fan of ever since I encountered her illustrations in.

Just Like Me by Vanessa Brantley

Even though it has been decades since I was a child, I still find delight in many children's illustrated books.
