Course Etiquette

That suggests that before that he was not pulling shots. This can also happen if you steepen the descent of the club head and end up hitting down on the ball.

10 rules to lower golf scores. Rule 10

In order to heave a bucket of water past your body, you must first get the bucket behind your body not above your head , which in turn promotes a more inside-out attack on the forwardswing. Instead, on the downswing try keeping your arms quieter and your back to the target a bit longer. About this Item: Cornerstone Library.
