Annie Ernaux's Memoirs Ask a Radical Question

Her refusal to subsume her personality to a movement, or to ignore the things that were important to her, remains an inspiration. So if instead, you want to know why we women must wake up, why our lives depend on a feminist movement, why we must continue the struggle, read this book. It is very difficult for me to even think of the Republican Party as having any kind of governing philosophy that is informing policy and decisions, when in the time of Trump, it just seems to be more transactional and corrupted by the interests of large concentrations of wealth.

Wisconsin Studies in Autobiography: My Generation : Collective Autobiography And Identity Politics (Paperback)

A realistic depiction of the effects of evil, Janina's and Mira's experiences are sometimes overwhelming. I understand that identity politics is a natural response to injustice. He is older, engaged to be married, essentially her boss.

Review: Sheila Jeffreys's autobiography Trigger Warning: My Lesbian Feminist Life — FiLiA

As these de-alignments unfold, major shifts in the makeup and core agendas of both parties become almost inevitable.

My Generation; Collective Autobiography and Identity Politics by John Hazlett, Paperback

It felt important to explore these topics together in our video Disambiguation 2009.

My Generation: Collective Autobiography and Identity Politics

You can either read the rest of the I Have a Dream Speech or literally any speech MLK gave before or after that one sentence that Reagan and everyone after Reagan liked to quote--you know the one.
