Blacksmith, Baker, Roofing

Or battered by a bathtub? The rains have failed again, no seeds are available, the oxen have been sold. The top three in the US list of hazardous products are reasonably predictable. In Kenya it is now 33 per cent.

Rural Women and Triple Exploitation in Korean Development by D. Gills, Paperback

The relief agencies do give seed and sometimes tools, but Ethiopian farming is dependent on ox-ploughing and there are few projects to restock communities with animals.

Update

Bangladesh has much the same cinema traditions as India, producing a steady stream of epics, all with the same ingredients: extravagant melodrama, traditional romance, dashing heroes and winsome heroines all light-skinned and running a little to fat - being slim is not enviable in a hungry country.

Social Contexts

All too often productive work for women outside the home is confined to handicrafts.
