The Priorities of Common Foreign and Security Policy in the 21st Century

Northern European states are active members of the transatlantic community, and they face similar concerns with their allies and partners: climate change, foreign influence campaigns, disinformation, and growing populist sentiment.

New Security Issues in Northern Europe on Apple Books

PESCO should open the way for security commitments to be included in national defense strategies. The download New hangs a book away Otherwise, IMHO.

Reviews

Seminar presentation of assigned texts 10%. Poland, the Baltic states and other countries in the region seem to be unified in their opposition to the project; however, they have taken no multilateral decisions or actions. The Nordic-Baltic countries also do well in surveys that measure the ease of doing business and creating new companies.

Counterterrorism Policies and Institutions in Northern Europe and the Baltic States
