The breaking string; the plays of Anton Chekhov : Valency, Maurice, 1903

Be hanged to your Squeezer! You ought to go and lie on the kitchen oven and catch blackbeetles, not go after foxes! Much that is beautiful goes to waste and is destroyed in this play, and the orchard stands as a symbol for all. You gave them your purse, Luba. Chekhov and Stanislavsky argued whether The Cherry Orchard was a comedy, as Chekhov maintained, or a tragedy, as Stanislavsky claimed.
