Treatise on Prayer and Meditation

We who desire to abide for ever should do the of, who is everlasting. For as is His walk in saints such is His walk in the Garden also, since everyone that sins hides from God and shuns His oversight and renounces his confidence with Him. We read also in the , Speak in your hearts, and in your beds, and be pierced.

John Knox: Treatise on Prayer

Thereafter, one should put thanksgivings: common thanksgivings—into which he introduces benefits conferred upon men in general—and thanksgivings for things which he has personally received from God.

John Knox

I mean not that the Holy Ghost does mourn or pray, but that he stirs up our minds, giving unto us a desire or boldness to pray, and causes us to mourn when we are extracted or pulled therefrom. So it was that Cain also went out from before God and dwelt in the land of Nod over against Eden.

John Knox

And when he raises his head and makes takbeer, raise your heads and make takbeer after him.
