Imām Abū Ja'far al

WRITING STYLE When writing on academic and ethical matters, one way of writing is to discuss one specific mas-ala rulings of Shariah separate from the others and at the same time to mention similar topics under one heading and division. Besides the Mu'tazilites and the Murji'ites, the followers of Imam Abu Hanifah themselves were divided in interpreting his views.

Trikaya Buddhism

Imam abu Hanifah occupied so important a place in theology and law and his system exerted so much influence on the educated mind that the Mu'tazilites, the Murji'ites, and the orthodox equally claimed him for themselves. What Do Classical Scholars Say About Jalal al

Such unpleasant incidents were not only happening between the Shi'ah and Sunnis, but were occurring between the different schools withing the Sunnite fraction also, such as between the Hanbalites and Shafiates and between Habalites and Asharites.
