But the Bible gives us a totally different account of our origin. With Wilson, who knew much of the country, and was well qualified to conduct the party, the governor sent a lad, a free servant of his, who was capable of giving an account of the occurrences of the journey; and from him the following particulars were collected: From Mount Hunter which was the highest land then known in that part of the country, and distant from the township of Parramatta from about 30 to 34 miles in a SW direction they took their departure on the 24th of last month, travelling in a SSW course for 18 miles, 12 of which laid through a fine open country. Our Lord, our Heavenly Father knows, even before we ask Him, what things we have need of, St.
