The Indus Valley Civilization Civilization Name: Indus Valley civilization Period: 3300 BC—1900 BC Original Location: Around the basin of the Indus river Current Location: Northeast Afghanistan to Pakistan and northwest India Major Highlights: One of the most widespread civilizations, covering 1. The author begins the book praising the Indian civilization in the introduction chapter and I was afraid that the rest of the book would be an uncritical glorification of India's past. But eventually, the empire became so vast that it was simply not possible to bring it under single rule.

India Presentation

The book is a journey of the land and its people, from the dawn of the Indus Valley civilization, through the numerous invasions from the west to the India that we know today.
