The Life and Times of Alfred the Great

Heahmund, bishop of Sherborne, fell in the battle of Marton, the last engagement in which Æthelred took part. I daresay it has happened to you, as it has often happened to myself, to read other books and authorities, and to fancy that one had gained from them fresh facts and views, and then to go back to Stubbs and find that all our new facts and views were there already; only, until we had read more widely ourselves, we had not eyes to see all that was written there. There's no reference to it being revised, and this may be its problem.
