They squawk at you in case you are the gods returning. Among these was included the 1751 prose rendering by Anne-Marie du Boccage already mentioned. But Cornforth was a woman to experience life and laughter with, a woman to enjoy unashamedly.

Still Standing on her Head: Poetry x 12: Sings Harry

The book slipping from her grasp may well be a translation of Pope's poem, or even one of those compilations which gathered together imitations so as to form an extended correspondence between the lovers.

LARVAL MIDGUT Drosophila melanogaster This is the long way through the fly. The challenge of performing this poem lies in bringing these word-pictures to life.

Red Trousseau: Poems by Carol Muske, Paperback

In its later editions the dependency between the two was further underlined by the inclusion first of Pope's poem from 1755 and then some of the principal responses in following editions.
