Remembering The Great Quaid

Despite this, other patriot proposition were being made.

From the 1920s onwards considerable improvements were made in the production of the paper. While constrained and shaped by their sites of settlement, Hyderabadis everywhere simultaneously participated in an emergent structure of feeling that was global and flowed across national boundaries. On 29 November, the Nizam signed the documents.

The man who made Pakistan

For over thirty years, he had guided their affairs; he had given expression, coherence and direction to their legitimate aspirations and cherished dreams; he had formulated these into concrete demands; and, above all, he had striven all the while to get them conceded by both the ruling British and the numerous Hindus the dominant segment of India's population.

Quaid

In India, many see him as the demon who divided the land.

Quaid

On 19 June he urged Jinnah to accept the appointment.

Quaid

He is clearly a better economist than I am. Shows the character and motives of Mr Jinnah very clearly. We went out of the Arts Building premises with hundreds of brickbats, hockey sticks, and rods.
