Philosophy of Education for Filipinos

Students will be able to associate learning to the real-world, thus, taking in charge and being responsible for their learning. I think it is more colorful than what we were taught in school.

Pagbubulaybulay

It was followed by another school for women, Colegio de Santa Isabel, that opened in 1632. The child should take part in various activities and learn naturally. One of the major functions is to instruct students.

Reforms in the Philippine education system: The K to 12 Program

Someone could attain all possible educational degrees, yet could still be uneducated. CHAPTER 3 Duties and Obligations Sec. News on international competitions such as the Math Olympiad gives us delight as we are informed of the excellence of some young Filipino students in this subject area.

Educational Philosophies of Great Heroes in the History of the Philippines

Mukhang nahirapan ang mga bata sa pagsusulit na aking binigay, kaya hindi naiwasang magsimula nang huli sa oras ang ikalawang asignatura. Is it not a fact that for every philosopher there is a counter philosopher. We shall define the concept word by word in the next chapter.
