Why Did the French Invade Mexico in 1861?

His local standing had increased through his marriage to Margarita Mazza, the daughter of one of Oaxaca's wealthiest families. And as we left Ciudad Juárez behind, with a final, few scattered junkyards in our wake, he began to tell me about all the history embedded in the landscape surrounding us.

The Vitality and Expressiveness of Modern Mexican Art — City of Albuquerque

Discrimination against criollos in the granting of high offices had long been a source of contention between Spain and Mexico City. Like their ancestors, the pioneers still channel the waters of a river to their crops, still have big families and still learn the language and customs of the locals. Taking Moctezuma hostage, Cortés is able to gain control of Tenochtitlán.

Benito Juarez

The Mexican Revolution 1910-1929 led to the creation of the modern state, albeit one that was ruled by a single party until 2000. Early Years Benito Juárez was born into Zapotec Indian tribe in San Pablo Guelatao, Oaxaca, Mexico. Rejecting the puppet regime installed by France, the incumbent viceroy allied himself with the criollos and declared an independent junta ostensibly loyal to Charles IV.
