Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

In order to reassure national courts, the European Court of Justice stressed that Community law is not boundless, and is subject to the limitations imposed by general principles ix. The EDF also urges that the resources which are to be made available via the European Investment Bank and the European Employment Initiative agreed by the European Parliament for small and medium enterprises should also include a ring-fenced amount for actions to promote the employment opportunities of disabled people.

Report on the rights of disabled people

There was a need for representative organizations of persons with disabilities to reach an agreement on the modalities of the inclusion of deaf people and the recognition of sign language, in order to present the new bill to Parliament.
