But one can no more write good English than one can compose good music merely by keeping the rules. They put some distance between themselves and the shore and a breeze picks up, tipping the water into white-caps. Him and Thorin and the stale smell of alcohol, him and Thorin and music playing as the sun rises.

The Complete Plain Words

I do not know exactly what that word means, and, for once, the Oxford English Dictionary is not illuminating. It challenges perspectives and our understanding of the world.
