You're tired Where's the promised happiness? The sound of the engine Draws the night sky The seat belts on the seats Are tightening I open up the convertible roof Lifting off the brake, in this moment It's like a clock going around fast My speed is driven by my confidence I ask you to come to watch something so moving it will bring you to tears You are concentrating on drawing your eyebrows I'm concentrating on waiting for you to smile You put on a bit of lipstick Acting cute and endearing, trying to please me I get the message Long legs with a tight skirt You're too high profile Your posture getting out of the car is too radiant This makes my heartbeat shout and shout again Oh oh the colour of your red lipstick is too forward I turn down the window and relax my breathing Oh oh the mascara and your eye shadow are so thick Don't entice me Oh oh your smile is so sweet it moves my heart I step on the gas and dash forward Oh oh you're wearing high heels and you're about to get pampered The last one in the queue chasing you is me On your crystal nails you've drawn hearts You brush aside your long hair Wanting to say something to me Really?
