Letter

The Camden Society was a text publication society founded in London in 1838 to publish early historical and literary materials, both unpublished manuscripts and new editions of rare printed books. See Hardy's Le Neve's Fatti, vol. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public.

Letter

Illustrations, Index, if any, are included in black and white. And thus much concerning my good and prosperous successes, after so great and grievous troubles: as commonly after boisterous and bitter storms there insueth a pleasant calm. In the interest of creating a more extensive selection of rare historical book reprints, we have chosen to reproduce this title even though it may possibly have occasional imperfections such as missing and blurred pages, missing text, poor pictures, markings, dark backgrounds and other reproduction issues beyond our control.
