Roland, part 1

Likewise, she presents the image of a detached public back home in the safety of England as the women in particular distance themselves from the war in Picnic: July 1917.

Roland Leighton

We are committed to providing you with reliable and efficient service at all times. She appears to regard the possibility of war with excitement as it soon dominates the rhetoric of her consequent entries.

Read all about it!

The series is about an artificial construct designed as a Security Unit, which manages to override its governor module, thus enabling it to develop independence, which it primarily uses to watch. I've included some memoirs and private accounts, but be warned that a few of these contain a lot of one-sided comment and inaccuracy - reader enjoy, but beware! Dust Jacket Condition: Very Good.

Radclyffe Hall: a case of obscenity? His mother anonymously published a memoir of him called Boy of My Heart in 1916. His funeral took place according to Catholic rites. All orders are dispatched as swiftly as possible! The facts, as recounted by Marie, are these: she contracted influenza that spring.
