PROSPECTS & OBSERVATIONS TOUR IN ENGLAND & SCOTLAND. THOMAS NEWTE. LONDON 1791

Haym, Rudolf, professor of Philosophy at Halle; wrote biographies of Hegel, W. Hankow 750 , a Chinese river-port, at the confluence of the Han and Yangtze Rivers; it is properly an extension of the large towns Wu-chang and Han-yang; there is a considerable amount of shipping; tea is the principal article of export, and a large trade is carried on with the inland provinces. Everybody believed that poor girl to be guilty; and if she could have committed the crime for which she suffered, assuredly she would have been the most depraved of human creatures.

He composed heroic songs and began to write many a tale of enchantment and knightly adventure. I passed a night of unmingled wretchedness. To the friend who thus so efficaciously patronized him, he afterwards inscribed an imitation of the ode to Macenas, which occupies the first place in his poems, as it does in those of Horace; and that he never forgot the benefits bestowed upon himself is manifested by the ready zeal which his future life at all times displayed for the encouragement of unnoticed genius.

As long as Rice and he were together at Shanklin, the two ailing and anxious men, firm friends as they were, depressed and did each other harm. Hornbook, was a sheet of vellum or paper used in early times for teaching the rudiments of education, on which were inscribed the alphabet in black or Roman letters, some monosyllables, the Lord's Prayer, and the Roman numerals; this sheet was covered with a slice of transparent horn, and was still in use in George II. Herophilus, a celebrated Greek physician who lived into the 3rd century B.
