He murders his brother by pouring poison into his ear while he sleeps. Zeffirelli had set out to make a Shakespearian adaptation that would be accessible and appealing to younger viewers, and casting Gibson was considered an intent to lure said audience into seeing it.

Yukio Ninagawa's quest for the perfect Hamlet: Why his eighth production is not his final one

He received excellent notices and reprised the role for television, for The Hallmark Hall of Fame, in 1970. In contrast, 's 1996 film version of the complete Hamlet included everything that Olivier had omitted. It is known internationally for its castle Kronborg, where Hamlet is set, but of course Shakespeare called it Elsinore.

Lawrence Guntner points out, comparisons with the latter film are heightened by the presence of Zhivago's Lara as Gertrude.

Hamlet (1996)

In the 1955 film, a biography of, Richard Burton appears in the title role and performs several scenes from Hamlet. The achingly beautiful Samurai Macbeth, his first production to travel overseas, became an overnight legend, disturbing the divide between drama and rite, secular and sacred, oriental and occidental. Hamlet, son of the murdered King, mournful of his father's death and mother's hasty marriage, is confronted by the ghost of the late King who reveals the manner of his murder.
