Infamy: The Shocking Story of the Japanese American Internment in World War II by Richard Reeves

British foreign Policy during the Curzon Period, 1919-24. On May 15, Saldanha, having received the Brief only a fortnight before, omitting the thorough, house-to-house visitation which had been ordered, and pronouncing on the issues which the pope had reserved to himself, declared that the Jesuits were guilty of having exercised illicit, public, and scandalous commerce both in and in its colonies. Supan gives figures only for colonies; we think it useful, in order to present a complete picture of the division of the world, to add brief figures on non-colonial and semicolonial countries, in which category we place Persia, China and Turkey: the first of these countries is already almost completely a colony, the second and third are becoming such.

Emerson removed the plaintiff and said Harriet, and their said daughter Eliza, from said Fort Snelling to the State of Missouri, where they have ever since resided. It isn't easy to read about the greed by those who profited from the internment of their neighbors and the bewilderment of the families who thought of themselves as patriotic Americans prior to their imprisonment.

Society of Jesus

Faithful to its principles, it vainly persecuted the spirit of Judaism in all its forms.

Guide to the Records of Brown Brothers Harriman 1696

A lawsuit for the closing of Clermont was instituted before the Parlement, and Estienne Pasquier, counsel for the university, delivered a celebrated plaidoyer against the Jesuits. Likewise, we need to be able to characterize the winner-take-all economy in clear, simple, and empirically verifiable terms to rule certain explanations out and others in. The Army then cannot be made the means of engendering conflict among the mass of people because of a stand with respect to Negroes which is not compatible with the position attained by the Negro in civilian life.

Which virtues or which vices have earned for the Jew this universal enmity? Justice McLean and Justice Curtis dissenting in separate opinions.
