Judaism 101: Jewish Calendar

A year in early Rome is believed to have been made up of 38 such nundinal cycles, divided into ten months of 30 or 31 days. With the decline of the Sanhedrin, calendrical matters were decided by the Palestinian patriarchate the official heads of the Jewish community under Roman rule. Other areas and religions have also stuck with their traditional calendars.

Feasts and Festivals of Israel

The two critical texts ; never imply that it had anything to do with the new year.

Jewish religious year

Hiyaru Apr ZW ZiW Hallatu May MTN? The offering of firstfruits took place at the beginning of the harvest and signified Israel's gratitude to and dependence on God. At first, a new month began when came to the Sanhedrin high rabbinical court and that they saw the new moon in the sky.

Jewish Months Of The Year

The new wine festival came 50 days or seven weeks after Pentecost. This additional month was added to the end of the year following the last month Adar, and was simply called Second Adar. The day Jesus was resurrected on the feast of first-fruits was when Mary Magdalene crying at the tomb, heard and recognized Jesus' voice and turned to Him.

Random Jottings: The Calendar of Ancient Israel

For that week, the Israelites not only ate no bread with yeast, but they also removed all yeast from their homes. The offering of the firstfruits to God was a statement of gratitude and a confession that the benefits of the harvest came by his grace.

The Jewish Calendar And Days Of The Week

It celebrated the end of the grain harvest. Since the first four feasts were fulfilled on the very days God commanded His people to celebrate them, it is reasonable to conclude that the remaining three feasts will also be fulfilled on the actual feast days as well.
