But he would never marry—at any rate not for twenty-five or thirty-years to come, if he should live so long. In those days a pious countess was more miraculous than the dream that foretold about Lady Huntingdon's coming. There have been above a hundred new communicants among them this summer, who never did partake of the blessed sacra- ment before ; which is five times as many as ever I admitted in any former year; most of them were awakened at Cambos- 88 MEMOIRS OF WHITEFIELD.

Having been advised before to cut out my hair, for my health at that time I got a wig; and thereafter wore one all along ; till after my coming to Ettrick, finding it troublesome when going abroad, I laid it aside, and betook me again to my own hair ; which to this day I wear. The people had no interest and no power, and I do not think politics were of any account in Paine's childhood.
