There, she stopped in front of a large sombre stone building pierced by small windows, and surmounted by a loggia or roof terrace. Piero di Cosimo is a successful artist.

Romola by George Eliot

Who is the dufus who chose this cover photo? This book is filled with transformations, but most are so sudden that they are likely to be problematic for the modern reader. It was more like a play with acts and scenes than a book.

Romola Garai

In short: a gorgeous novel. She lived in Wiltshire until moving to London when she was 16.
