The Social Worker can, if necessary, assist with this. When a is discontinued the Family Action Plan will be reviewed. When dissent occurs, the social worker must therefore involve that agency in future decision-making and any Child Protection or Child in Need Plan.

Child Protection Responsibilities

Provision should be made to facilitate a child who has any form of disability to participate. This one day course is for people who routinely participate in safeguarding children. When we feel this way, to sit quietly in a park for five minutes and briefly run through the priorities, we can look at how we can work smarter, perhaps delegate tasks to families, therefore empowering them and including them in planning for children.
