Rudolf Bultmann: A Reader's Guide

The couple had three daughters. I have put it off until now, because it is important to see that demythologizing is nothing new; it is the consistent outworking of basic theological convictions that he shares with Barth.

Existence and Faith. Shorter Writings of Rudolf Bultmann by Rudolf Karl Bultmann

I am slowly trying to change this. That decision of faith mattered most to Bultmann of all the items which have collected into the creeds and confessions of Christendom.

Existence And Faith: Shorter Writings by Rudolf Bultmann

Wichmann set out to cover the contacts associated with Tübingen, Germany to where this particular version of the story could be traced, while I interviewed people in Marburg where Bultmann spent most of his teaching career.

In many respects, it is the commentary that drives the program, not the other way around. This ranks with the very best of his articles, combining exegetical reflection with creative and provocative theological judgments.

Rudolf Bultmann

In this essay one finds a synthesis of his mature hermeneutical theology, arranged in three parts: a the concept of myth and the program of demythologizing, b the role of existentialist philosophy, and c the nature of divine action. He must have known that any other strategy would have resulted in a general dismissal of his mental faculties, forbearance of his age, failure of will in the face of death, or the like.
