Hrothgar

The Anglo Saxons are fierce and adventurous people with the fondness of war and love for the blue sea. Angered by the joy of the men in the mead-hall, the ogre furiously bursts in on the Geats, killing one and then reaching for Beowulf. A Hero's Welcome Most students know that much of the poem, but it continues: Beowulf returns to Geatland and eventually becomes king.

Le poème anglo

Some have given us prose versions of what we believe to be a great poem.

BEOWULF

Is slain by the sons of Othhere. The Heaðobards Ingeld and Froda also appear in Scandinavian tradition, but their tribe, the Heaðobards, had long been forgotten, and instead the tribal feud was rendered as a family feud. Superficially it is true that rof oretta and rices hyrde have alliteration in r and each contains four syllables.

Old English Heroic poem (Beowulf and others) : Anglo Saxon pagan poetry: Pre

A hero of the Geats and forthcoming king, the title character comes to the aid of Hrothgar, king of the Danes, whose kingdom was under attack by a monster known as Grendel. I want to demonstrate that the stories about these four ladies are topically connected to each other and that they may have served as conduct stories for Anglo-Saxon princesses.
