El Perello Surf Forecast and Surf Reports (Valencia, Spain)

Since their customs and manners are very strange to us, I shall recount for you as briefly as I can something of their conditions and manners, of what I saw of them with the king, with whom on my return journey I spent the feast of Christmas, despite the fact that passing when I was first with him I had not seen enough of them. And the prior shuts the gates and goes back. Built in the early 18th Century, Casa Perellos was the intimate, yet stately country residence of the Grand Master Ramon Perellos y Rocafull 1697—1720.

And as it pleases God and by his grace I did not wish to despair, I called on the name of Jesus Christ and at once the strength of the flame threw me out of the well with the wind and the air and I came down by the side of the well and stayed there a great while not knowing where I was nor in which direction I should go and I was all alone for I did not know where the devils had gone or what had happened to those who had brought me. Castilian translation of the Catalan text. Afterwards the prior leads him with all the clergy to the gate of the purgatory with a great procession singing litanies; and then the prior opens the gate and tells him of the dangers which are in the place in which he wishes to enter and how the malign spirits will come out to him and fight him and how a great quantity of other people have been lost there; and if one pays no heed to this and does not shift from his intention, then he makes the sign of the cross over him and blesses him and all those who are there and he commends himself to their prayers and makes the sign of the cross over them and takes his leave and enters the pit.

The Journey of Viscount Ramon de Perellós to Saint Patrick's Purgatory

Sciatis quod, cum, nobilis vir, Reymundus vicecomes de Perilleux et de Rodes chivaler, camerarius carissimi patris nostri Franciae, in regnum nostrum Angliae venire, et per idem regnum versus terram nostram Hiberniae, ad purgatorium Sancti Patricii ibidem videndum et visitandum, cum viginti hominibus et triginta equis in comitiva sua, transire et proficisci intendat et proponat, nostra licentia mediante. Yet more we are thus in great joy and great repose as you can see; and when it pleases God we will go to paradise. And with the king there were about three thousand horses and also many poor folk to whom I saw the king give great alms of beef.
