Historic and Heritage Attractions

The commemorative plaque, known as a 'Red Wheel', has been awarded by The Transport Trust, in conjunction with us and the Coventry Canal Society.

Hawkesbury Mills Historical Marker

It holds almost legendary significance in the process of the formation of the first European settlement on the continent, because it was on the alluvial flats of the Hawkesbury that the prospect of famine and starvation for the colony was fundamentally changed, largely by the efforts of the emancipists themselves, to a more enterprising and productive future.

Historic Hawkesbury 10.2020

Nicole Cama, a curatorial assistant at the Australian National Maritime Museum, followed in his footsteps and fell equally in love with the surrounds. However, by the 1880s the river had become silted up between Sackville and Windsor, and Sackville became the head of navigation for sea-going vessels.

Historic Hawkesbury / [compiled by D.G. Bowd]

Hawkesbury City Council is currently developing the Hawkesbury Aboriginal Cultural Heritage Study. The tour requires a minimum of 1 hour 30 minutes to complete. Twelve people died, many dwellings were destroyed and hundreds of settlers made destitute.

Historic Hawkesbury 10.2020

We endeavour to provide the community with real-time access to true unfiltered news firsthand from primary sources. The death toll in a really big flood could be huge. Indeed no other flood since European settlement has come within 4 metres of that one at the Windsor gauge.

Historic Hawkesbury / [compiled by D.G. Bowd]

Quiet country roads, meandering routes along the river, historic villages and fabulous farmgate produce by the roadside.

Plaque unveiled to mark historic Hawkesbury canal junction

Sometimes, to truly understand a historical context, you must venture beyond your comfort zone.
