Complete Poetry and Selected Prose of John Keats

I sometimes got bogged down in stretches of description where I lost the thread of the narrative. But then you read it and most of it is kind of.

The Complete Poems by John Keats

I would really like to get more into poetry. The subjects and characters are chosen from real life and Greek mythology, so the poems vary between reality and fantasy.

The Complete Poems of John Keats by John Keats: 9780679601081

Written in disgust of vulgar superstition 14 Sonnet.

. I've read the harsh reviews here, and I must admit that there is a grain of truth in some of them.

Complete Poems and Selected Letters of... book by John Keats

Eliot has paid tribute to the Shakespearean. Keats is very influential through out the Victorian age. Nor do I think you can 'rate' any of England's poets of the Romantic movement, Byron or Shelley, just as you wouldn't give stars to a Shakespeare play.
