We can put him together even his very finger-sections, 75: 3-4. There is not a single letter of the Qur'an more than this. ثُمَّ أَوَّلَى لَكَ فَأَوَّلَى, the word أَوَّلَى is from وِيلَ which is used for expressing anger, reproach, and hatred.

Al

Consequently, the Prophet sws would continuously receive guidance regarding the placement of the revealed verses in various surahs. It is, in fact, a verse with an entirely different context and occasion. When the Prophet sws received divine guidance, he thought that he was being given a great responsibility and that he was being entrusted with a great thing; the slightest of mistakes or the loss of even a single letter would hold him accountable before God.

Beautiful Names of Allah: al

It is as if man is scolded for his indifference in preparing for this journey; he remained busy acquiring worldly pleasures and luxuries and reached a stage when in this

Surah Al Qari'ah Ayat 1

After this, the words are: وَلَا صَلَّى and he did not pray. The word فَاقِرَةٌ refers to a calamity which shatters the bones of the spinal cord. The passive tense قِيلَ has great eloquence in it.

pursuit he lost all his strength and energy; how will he now be able to reach his Lord in such a state? Portrayed in these verses is actually the situation that will arise before people enter Paradise or Hell. Hatim al-Ta'i says: أماوي ما يغني الثراء عن الفتى إذا حشرجت يوما وضاق بها الصدر O Mawiyah! It would be done when the time came. I will now present excerpts from the exegesis of my mentor Imam Hamid al-Din Farahi which he has written while explaining these verses.

Al

The mental state of those who will be going to Hell is depicted thus: تَظُنُّ أَنْ يُفْعَلَ بِهَا فَاقِرَةٌ apprehending that there is going to befall them that which breaks their backs. As far as the nature of this observation is concerned, we cannot determine it in this
