Recent facts reveal that if one's ideology is not thoroughly remoulded, even if one has been living among the workers, peasants and soldiers, and thrown oneself into the actual struggle for a long time, one will not be able to resist corruption by bourgeois ideology when there is a change of environment and, in consequence, lose one's own standpoint and commit gross errors.

Mao Tun and modern Chinese literary criticism

Lin runs his business and his small credit union in an old fashioned way, he is a trustworthy man, but eventually he becomes a victim of the changing times and credit contracts. It pointed out clearly that literature and art should serve the people and, first of all, the workers, peasants and soldiers, and that to achieve this aim, literary and art workers themselves should remould their ideology; and that in order to remould their ideology, they must wholeheartedly throw themselves into the actual revolutionary struggle. Literary Dissent in Communist China.

Mao Dun

A few nouveau-riche people with grudges to bear have worked tirelessly to vilify Mao.
