8 Reasons You Feel Like You Don't Belong Anywhere

They are from the world, therefore they speak as from the world, and the world listens to them. Interpersonal acceptance is not met in individuals with low self-esteem, which prompts them to self-regulate by looking to others for guidance with regards to where to focus attention. Divorce and death are two negative events that spoil the need to belong.

8 Reasons You Feel Like You Don't Belong Anywhere

Given that school belonging is largely about perception, social belonging interventions such as those suggested by Walton and Brady have therefore been found to be useful. This is one of the reasons people seek to spend time bonding with family, friends, hobby-buddies, sports fans, and religious congregations. Social belonging is a fundamental human need, hardwired into our DNA.
