Her feet must never touch the ground.

Kumari: The Living Goddess of Nepal

When the queen learned of the young girl's fate, she became enraged and insisted that the king fetch the girl and install her as the living incarnation of Durga. There is a belief that, if she cries or laughs loudly, the worshipper is expected to become seriously ill or even die. A memorial was later constructed at the location where the ashes were kept for public viewing, near Kumari Amman Temple.
