Nice to see the links and some words I added on Wikipedia appearing here.

Katha Sarit Sagara

While Lalitalochana is picking flowers, a hermit named Pisangajata spots Naravahanadatta, and invites him to his hermitage to tell him the lengthy side story of Mrigankadatta, son to King Amaradatta. Stories that have come down from original Indian myths and tales that were originally passed along by word-of-mouth, later compiled in Sanscrit by the supposed author, Somaveda.
