Vicarious Liability In Florida Car Accidents

Similarly, a security company could be held be liable for theft by an employee on the basis of its own negligence if it negligently employs a security guard that it knows or should have known is dishonest or where it negligently fails to properly supervise its security guards. A quasi-delict may be public or private; the neglect of the affairs of a community, when it is our duty to attend to them, may be a crime; the neglect of a private matter, under similar circumstances, may be the ground of a civil action. Even if the employee is doing the thing with the intention of benefiting his or her employer and not himself, the employer will still not be liable if the employee is doing something which is neither part of his or her employment duties nor reasonably incidental thereto.
