The town marks the start or end of the Cotswold Way, a 102 mile 164 km long traverse of the region ending in the spa city of Bath. We brought a picnic and you are able to sit on the lawn near the car park and just enjoy the surroundings. This tour includes round-trip travel from central London, but entry to the stately homes and gardens is payable separately.

Chipping Campden

Chipping Campden was one of the Cotswold's main wool markets.
