Lohengrin (TV Movie 1986)

The performance on 9 November was attended by , who annotated a copy of the vocal score with his impressions and opinions of Wagner this was almost certainly his first exposure to Wagner's music. Thanks to a court tradition, opera found a home in Munich in 1653; since then its music-historical and sociopolitical development has continued in a way unparalleled anywhere else, worldwide.

Lohengrin (TV Movie 1986)

She is obsessed with the thought, that the day will come when the swan will pick him up again and she asks Lohengrin the unfortunate question.

A guide to Wagner's Lohengrin

It takes up all the elements of romanticism to build an ideal legend around a hero who appears as the symbol of the visionary and misunderstood artist. He asks only one thing in return for his service: Elsa must never ask him his name or where he has come from. I as you suffer this cruel pain! This means that the singer must have sufficient vocal power to bring this section to a climax of the evening.

Gerade in Lohengrin geht die Interpretation eine Ebene tiefer.

List of Operas by Richard Wagner

The voice suffered from the strain. Then I involuntarily painted the delightful state of a man in a great reverie, in absolute solitude with an immense horizon and a wide diffused light.

Lohengrin

But I was fooling myself: no sooner had I stepped into the noonday bath than I was seized by such desire to write Lohengrin that, incapable of lingering in the bath for the prescribed hour, I leapt out after only a few minutes, scarcely took the time to clothe myself again properly, and ran like a madman to my quarters to put what was obsessing me on paper.

Spinner

The knight, however, feels only a sense of duty towards Elsa who, in spite of her misgivings, keeps her promise not to ask about his origins.

Spinner

Elsa asks the forbidden question because she needs to confirm Lohengrin's belief in her innocence, a belief that Ortrud successfully erodes in act 2. A knight does indeed arrive to fight for Elsa, led by a swan. Diese Oper wird fast zu einer Schlacht zwischen dem Reich Gottes bedingungslose Liebe und dem Heidentum magische Kraft.
