Female entrepreneurs

During the Cold War era the GFWC promoted the theme that American women had a unique ability to preserve world peace while strengthening the nation internally through local, national, and international community activism. Anthony, a Quaker and rising leader in the woman's suffrage movement, made nationwide suffrage a goal and recruited many supporters Carter 1996; Weatherford 1998. In addition, keyboard functions, such as tabbing across options, should not get lost in the content.

Suffrage Movement

Later, women also started to become involved in groups, groups and organizations starting in the 1840s. From this split, two associations emerged: The American Woman Suffrage Association AWSA, and the National Woman Suffrage Association NWSA. Clubwomen in Mount Pleasant, Iowa, helped secure taxes to support their public library.

The construction industry has a problem, and women are going to solve it

Nevertheless, the woman suffrage movement was aided by the efforts of three important black figures: Sojourner Truth ca. As women gained more rights, the need for clubs to exercise political and social influence became less important. Female entrepreneurs have also been especially successful in getting funded through crowdfunding platforms like.

Constitution, which finally allowed women the right to vote. However, another factor in earning the right to vote was a decline in membership until the , when women got together again for charitable work. We use the guidance and brilliance of our ancestors as well as the teachings of our own experiences to pursue our commitment to dismantling systems of oppression and violence.
