business partner, and Faulkner re-created this event several times in his fiction. The pieces he wrote during the period he spent with Anderson in were collected in 1958 under the title of Sketches. This movie tagline is incorporated into the plot, and it's another effective use of contrast within the tagline.

Speech: "Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow" by...

According to the Reverend Shegog's sermon, the evil past can be immediately redeemed and all things made new again under the auspices of the resurrection of Jesus.
