In order to respond accurately to the Arminian position on prevenient grace one must demonstrate an understanding of not only the location of this doctrine within the Arminian and Wesleyan systems, but identify how it relates to the logic of the system.

EVANGELICAL, WESLEYAN, EGALITARIAN

Freed from the impediment of unexpectancy, believers find the aforementioned fulfilled in them. For the most part it is not so much that mystics are aware of living in God as that they cannot understand not living in God — unless the dark night appears with a torment that is foreign to the spiritually shallow.
