William Zillman, died June 29, 1885, Benton, aged 63 years. With the greatest Gratitude and Respect, I am, Gentlemen, Your very faithful and obedient Servant, HENRY BEAUCHAMP LYGON. One summer, when he was passing the hot season on the sea-shore with his retinue of ladies, his musical comrade, Nareda, hinted to him that, since he had such a multitude of wives, it would be no great stretch of generosity to spare one to a poor musician who had no wife at all.
