Listening Woman

Indigenous Voices of the Colorado Plateau. Women with health insurance were two times more likely than their uninsured counterparts to have an annual mammogram 57% vs.

Listening Woman (Leaphorn & Chee, #3) by Tony Hillerman

Forty-seven percent of the women surveyed reported having received a callback at some time for additional testing, of which 89% were determined to ultimately have a benign outcome. Recommended to Leaphorn fans and Dine philosophy fans. I have never been a follower of police stories because they often fall short of the attendant realities connected with Law Enforcement.

Listening to the Women

The best part of these books is getting into Indian culture. I finished this last night after work - a two-night read.

LISTENING WOMAN by Tony Hillerman

Hillerman has such wonderful characters to read. The villains's backstories are engrossing, and the action scenes, especially the claustrophobic forced spelunking that Leaphorn is forced into, are believable and effective. Anxiety and fear have been reported to have a major impact on breast cancer screening behaviors.
