Florida Rules of Court Procedure

The dividing line between information relevant to the claims and defenses and that relevant only to the subject matter of the action cannot be defined with precision. Such an order may, for cause shown, be made on ex parte application. The existing subdivision, although in terms applicable only to depositions, is incorporated by reference in existing Rules 33 and 34.

Rules of Civil Procedure

While these studies may indicate the desirability of further changes in Rule 26 a 1 , these changes probably could not become effective before December 1998 at the earliest. The return along with the receipt shall be promptly filed by the clerk with the pleadings and become a part of the record. No fees or costs for the service of a subpoena shall be collected or charged as costs except when service is made by the sheriff or his deputy.

Rule 26. Duty to Disclose; General Provisions Governing Discovery

The parties may be able to reach agreement on the forms of production, making discovery more efficient. By local rule, order, or written stipulation, the requirement of a written report may be waived for particular experts or imposed upon additional persons who will provide opinions under Rule 702.

Florida Rules of Court Procedure

In conferring, the parties must consider the nature and basis of their claims and defenses and the possibilities for promptly settling or resolving the case; make or arrange for the disclosures required by Rule 26 a 1 ; discuss any issues about preserving discoverable information; and develop a proposed discovery plan. The Committee has been informed that this language is rarely invoked.
