Signs may also shift in mode over time. Peirce stated that although 'any material image' such as a painting may be perceived as looking like what it represents, it is 'largely conventional in its mode of representation'. .

Not Saussure

Once we use language speech or writing to refer to reality, that reality is linguistically formulated and therefore indeterminate. Like and , Derrida belonged to the intelligentsia, and would have been failing in his social responsibilities not to have demonstrated how words are used for political ends, often to intimidate and repress the less-advantaged communities. Your self of one instant appeals to your deeper self for his assent'.
