This is unlikely to be the last attempt.

Implementing WIPO's Development Agenda

The United States, helped by its relatively strong economic position following the close of WWII, achieved the position of global dominance in international trade. It functioned as an international organisation, holding under its auspices eight rounds of talks on international trade issues and regulation. Recent decisions by the Supreme Court of the United States in the field of patent law illustrate this well.

GATT Or WIPO?: New Ways in the International Protection of Intellectual ...

WIPO was established by the WIPO Convention in 1967 with a mandate from its Member States to promote the protection of IP throughout the world through cooperation among states and in collaboration with other international organizations.

World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), World Trade and Arbitration Materials

To the extent that this takes place, the inquiry into localization, as well as the fashioning of remedies, becomes more complex. These points are addressed without prejudice to whether they are all intellectual property related or indeed environment related but because they have been raised in environmental fora by at least some as having an IPR dimension.

Draft texts completed by these working groups are submitted to UNCITRAL for finalization and adoption at its annual session. The importance of obtaining consensus on the forty-five recommendations should not be understated. Their result may be a sui generis EC law or modification of the existing patent law.
