First, the act seeks greater accountability of federal employees for their performance. During his tenure, he emphasized national unity and played a quiet too quiet to some role as reformer and conciliator.

Spoils system

This system was admired and then borrowed by European countries from the 16th century onward, and is now the model for most countries around the world. Jackson supporters had been lavished with promises of positions in return for political support. By the 1870s, the currency question had basically boiled down to gold versus silver.

Politics of the 1870s and 1880s

After the battle between the Monitor and the Virginia, Fox championed ironclad technology despite having to contend with an officer corps wedded to wooden ships.

Hoogenboom, Ari Arthur 1927

By 1900, most federal jobs were handled through civil service and the spoils system was limited only to very senior positions.

A History of Pennsylvania

The organisation of the Irish Civil Service is very similar to the traditional organization of the British Home Civil Service, and indeed the grading system in the Irish Civil Service is nearly identical to the traditional grading system of its counterpart.
