Land Claims Coalition

The Transportation division of the department reviewed its obligations as specified in the first four final agreements. The SRB held two meetings April 26 and December 18, 1996, to establish its rules of practice and procedure, panel hearing procedures, infrastructure, process, and to discuss routine Board business. The quantum of settlement land and financial compensation guaranteed by the UFA are apportioned to individual First Nations based on a formula arrived at by the 14 First Nations.

Government of Canada obligations pursuant to the UFA and Final Agreements and the implementation plans continue with reference to land, water, mines and minerals, forestry, development assessment, surface rights and economic development.

First Nations' Final Agreements

The Minister is responsible for approval and action of the Committee's recommendations. The Enrolment Commission's Appeal Rules were finalized on September 20, 1996, with copies provided to all parties to the Umbrella Final Agreement. For instance, the agreement led to the and the subsequent formation of the Yukon Environmental and Socio-economic Assessment Board, which oversees project applications for industrial development projects.

A land agreement in Yukon just set tone for conservation in the North

This isolation is a blessing for our people, for it enables us to preserve our language, traditional pursuits such as fishing, trapping, snow shoeing and hunting — particularly hunting the Porcupine Caribou Herd. The Dawson land use planning process is currently underway and highlights how significant and these planning processes can be, especially when they have the potential to set conservation and First Nations priorities against industry and commercial interests.
